

EMERGENCY FINANCIAL AID GRANTS – QUARTER 1, 2022 - FINAL

In accordance with reporting requirements by the US Department of Education, the following information is provided to describe the use of funds distributed to Young Harris College for Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students. This information will be updated quarterly.

Student emergency grants distributed to eligible students can be used for any component of the student's cost of attendance or for emergency costs that arise due to coronavirus, such as tuition, food, housing, health care (including mental health care) or child care.

These funds are not considered financial aid and do not affect a student's current or future financial aid eligibility. Per guidance from the federal government, these grants were distributed to our students with exceptional need, which were identified by the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). A separate email notification was sent to each student who is receiving funding.

1. An acknowledgement that the institution signed and returned to the Department the Certification and Agreement and the assurance that the institution has used the applicable amount of funds designated under the ARP program to provide Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students.

As required by the CARES Act, in April 2020, Young Harris College signed and returned to the Department the Certification and Agreement which also serves as formal acknowledgement and acceptance of subsequently awarded American Relief Plan (ARP) Act funds. The College will disburse no less than $2,316,789 for Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students which is the entirety of the funds awarded to Young Harris College.

2. The total amount of funds that the institution will receive or has received from the Department pursuant to the institution's Certification and Agreement [for] Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students under the ARP program.

Young Harris College has received (was awarded) $2,316,789 from the Department pursuant to the institution's Certification and Agreement for Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students.

3. The total amount of Emergency Financial Aid Grants distributed to students under the ARP program as of the date of submission (i.e., as of the 30-day Report and every 45 days thereafter).

Young Harris College distributed $604,517 of Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students during the quarter ended March 31, 2022. Young Harris College has distributed $2,316,789 in total Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students as of March 31, 2022

4. The estimated total number of students at the institution eligible to receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students under the ARP program.

Because no student is required to file a FAFSA, the estimated total number of students at the institution eligible to participate in programs under Section 484 in Title IV cannot be determined.

5. The total number of students who have received an Emergency Financial Aid Grant to students under the ARP program.

For the quarter ending March 31, 2022, 563 students received an Emergency Financial Aid Grant. 2,428 Emergency Financial Aid Grants have been awarded to students by Young Harris College as of March 31, 2022.

6. The method(s) used by the institution to determine which students receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants and how much they would receive under the ARP program.

The methodology used by Young Harris College can be found here.

7. Any instructions, directions, or guidance provided by the institution to students concerning the Emergency Financial Aid Grants.

To view the ARP Funding email sent to students, click here.