Hello Future Mountain Lion!

My name is Katelynn Rash. I am an English Major and commuter from Union County, GA. As one of the FYTT Leader Interns, I know for a fact that our entire First-Year Transition Team, is super stoked to have you! Being in the same shoes you were once in; I am sure you are a little excited but probably a little nervous about setting up your life in college. No need to worry, we have your back! Here are some pointers to get yourself on the right track:

1. Read, Read, Read! The more YHC emails and booklets (like this one) you read from your professors and administration, the less in the dark you will feel. They are very insightful in giving you the right skills you need to be successful and keeping you up to date with what is all going on at YHC.

2. Get your YHC App set up. It is available on all app stores, just search and download. Having the app helps you stay connected to all aspects of campus life. From laundry viewing, to the dining hall menu, to upcoming events, and the entire Young Harris community, the YHC App has it all.

SCAN TO DOWNLOAD THE YHC APP

3. Stay involved. Even a commuter like me stays to enjoy campus life. There are always things going on and new people to meet!

4. Don't be afraid to ask a lot of questions. No one here is going to be upset with you for trying to figure things out. Remember that you can control a lot of your stress just by asking questions. Questions like; What's the food like in the cafeteria? Amazing. What if I am having a hard time with a subject or peers? Go to the Success Center next to our Chick-fil-a (also great food). Where can I get some great study time? The Library.

5. Know you are going to be okay. College can be stressful, but YHC is an enchanted place where you can grow and thrive. Stay calm; be yourself, and be open to new possibilities. Your college experience is what you make of it so make it great!

Prepare to ROAR! , #YHC2028!

Katelynn Rash 2025

Katelynn Rash

Hello!

My name is Abby Thompson! I am a senior graphic design major with a history minor from Rabun County, Georgia. I have the honor of working with you all as one of the First-Year Transition Team Interns. I cannot wait for you all to fall in love with this campus and community, as well as find your Mountain Lion family! The first few weeks of college can take some adjusting to, so here are a few tips to help make it easier!

1. Get out on campus and meet new people! Making friends at college is all about putting yourself out there which can be hard, but this is a fresh start! You get to introduce yourself and be exactly who you want to be with people who haven't known you since middle school! Join a club, sign up for a Greek recruitment, or hangout on the couches. These are all great ways to find your campus family!

2. Go to class! While college comes with the freedom of choosing whether or not to go to class, skipping can cause you to fall behind your peers and, quickly, get off track for graduation. Going to class sets you up for success early in college because it allows you the opportunity not only to learn new material but also form relationships with your professors and other students!

3. The newfound independence comes with challenges of its own but this is your time to learn how to do things on your own and become dependent on yourself. Also, remember that everyone around is you is new to this experience. Embrace the change! Being away from home can be a challenge but the longer you stay on campus for the first time, the easier it will be making friends. I promise the homesickness fades!

4. This isn't high school, which is such a blessing but it also means you cannot get away with the same things. This seems cliché and at risk of sounding like every high school teacher you've had, "that won't fly in college." Your professors do care but they will not hold your hand or chase you down, it is your turn to hold yourself accountable because your mama isn't here!

The Enchanted Valley awaits your arrival!

#YHC2028 get ready to ROAR!

Abby Thompson, Class of 2025

Abby Thompson

Welcome, New Mountain Lions and Families!

My name is Dr. Ben Van Dyke. I am an assistant professor in the Department of Psychology and the Faculty Director of the First-Year Experience here at Young Harris College. I am very excited to welcome you and your family to YHC.

As Faculty Director of the First-Year Experience, my job is to work with an amazing team of faculty, staff, and students to ensure that your first year at YHC provides you with the knowledge and skills that will set you up for success, not only here at Young Harris, but in your future career and life after graduation.

Students, we are thrilled that you have decided to join our community and take the next step in your academic and personal journey with us. We are working hard to make sure that the First-Year Experience helps you start on the right foot for four positive and successful years with us. We know that taking that step into the unknown by leaving home and starting college can be scary. But we also know that it is exciting. And we are looking forward to helping you take that first step, sharing that excitement, and going on the journey with you!

Families, we know this might be an anxiety-provoking, as well as exciting, transition for you, too. Please know that we take the privilege and responsibility of guiding your student through their academic journey very seriously, and we do so with great pride. The goal of the First-Year Experience is to help students navigate the challenges that come with starting college in the best of times, but especially recognizing the particular challenges that students may face while transitioning to college after spending most of their formative high school years during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Please take some time to review the information in this Enrollment Guide and talk about it together as a family. The information here has been carefully selected by a team of faculty and staff to provide you with what you need to know between now and when you arrive for ROAR Orientation in August.

I look forward to meeting you. Please know that we are here for you, so do not hesitate to reach out as questions or concerns arise.

We can't wait to welcome you to your college experience in the Enchanted Valley!

Warm best regards,

Dr. Van Dyke

YHC does NOT cover your personal belongings in your room if something happens. If your parents or guardians have homeowners or renters' insurance, their policy may extend to you if you live in a residence hall. Check the details of their policy to see exactly what's covered and the dollar amount of the coverage. If the amount covered in your parents' or guardians' policy is less than you need to replace the possessions in your room should something happen, you may want to take out an additional insurance policy.

THE FIRST YEAR EXPERIENCE

The mission of the First-Year Experience (FYE) Program is to support entering first year students in making a successful transition into the scholarly life and social community at Young Harris College. The FYE program provides students with opportunities for personal exploration and growth using an extended orientation model that includes Ready to ROAR, ROAR, Family Weekend, and the course MTLN 1000 Intro to College Success. MTLN 1000 is taught by a team of instructors dedicated to the common goal of setting up each of our students for long-term success. Additionally, each MTLN 1000 instructor is assisted by a student mentor, an upper-class student who also serves as a First-Year Transition Team (FYTT) Leader during Ready to ROAR and ROAR Orientation events.

All first-time, full-time students will take MTLN 1000 in their first semester of enrollment. MTLN 1000 also satisfies one of the requirements of YHC's general education curriculum. MTLN 1000 has been designed with the needs of first-year students in mind with input from YHC students and faculty. The heart of the course centers on the development of four critical literacies for college students: community literacy, self-literacy, academic and information literacy, and institutional literacy.

All classes meet Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. MTLN 1000 sections also provide group and individual academic advising, with the instructor serving as the advisor for first time freshmen during their initial semester at YHC. After their first semester, students transition to advising with faculty in their chosen majors.
