9/20 Pops on the Patio

This year's Pops concert, People and Personas, shines a spotlight on the vibrant characters and personalities that come to life through music and pop culture. From bold heroes to quirky icons, the program celebrates the spirit and style of unforgettable figures through dynamic performances. In case of inclement weather, the performance will be held in Suber Banquet Hall.

9/27 The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane

Fred Register Endowment for Children's Theatre

Adapted by Dwayne Harford from Kate DiCamillo's beloved novel, The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane is more than a children's story—it's a profound exploration of love, loss, and emotional awakening, brought to life by an intimate ensemble of actors and musicians. Edward, a porcelain rabbit once too vain to love, is cast adrift—literally and figuratively—on a journey through the hands and hearts of strangers. Though he cannot move or speak, Edward becomes a silent witness to grief, resilience, and hope, ultimately discovering the courage to love again. The play's emotional depth and minimalist storytelling offer a rare opportunity for audiences to reflect on empathy and transformation in a world that often rushes past both. This all-ages show is brought to you by The Fred Register Endowment for Children's Theatre at Young Harris College.

John Cleaveland Art Exhibition

John L. Cleaveland, Jr. received his BFA from the University of Georgia and held a Graduate Assistantship in the UGA Studies Abroad Program in Cortona, Italy. He has exhibited his work at the Huntsville Museum of Art, the Albany Museum of Art, Blue Spiral 1 Gallery, University of Georgia, Madison Morgan Cultural Center, Lyndon House Art Center, and the Missouri State Botanical Gardens. His paintings are in the permanent collections of the Asheville Art Museum, the UGA State Botanical Garden of Georgia, the Combat Art Collection at the U.S. Marine Corps Museum, the Morris Museum of Art, 3-M Company, Bessemer Trust, and the Alabama Power Company. "My paintings are specific expressions of places I've been to that I love that I'm connected to, or that I'm pushed to some expression by. I'm not necessarily looking for a thing so much as I'm looking for a feeling — something that might tell a greater truth but in a very simple way."

1/22-2/20 Anna Jensen and Kevn Kinney Art Exhibition

Anna Jensen's paintings are a synthesis of classical and abstract figuration. Her body of work is inspired by both trauma and exaltation. They are the fruit of years of rigorous research conducted in her home of the American South. With immense drive and rare sensitivity, Anna demonstrates the power of an individual to prevail through challenges via creative transfiguration. She is mostly self-taught yet has exhibited internationally to great acclaim over the past nearly twenty years. "My paintings are psychological landscapes and emotionally complex narratives. I combine references to art history, pop culture, natural science, and personal chronicles to represent the conflicts of life. The titles are important elements. Like me the stories are at once funny and sad." Her husband, highly acclaimed singer-songwriter Kevn Kinney, is most widely known as founder and frontman of Atlanta-based rock band Drivin N Cryin. He was recently inducted into both the Wisconsin Music Hall of Fame and Georgia Music Hall of Fame for his impactful legacy. Also, an accomplished poet, painter, and solo musician, Kinney has released multiple critically acclaimed recordings during his career having collaborated with R.E.M., Indigo Girls, the Who, and Warren Haynes among many others.
